

Centres must be manned by at least one appropriately trained employee at all times
Centres must provide visitors with local information thus encouraging them to stay and spend more, attracting external revenue
Centres must provide an area to display posters of upcoming local events
Centres must promote their local area and the entire Coromandel Peninsula as a great place to live, work and play
Centre must provide a booking service for local transport
Centres must make it's premises reasonably available for the conducting of information gathering survey's carried out by the Council

2. Anticipated Issues

3. Any Other Issues